Vagrants Cause Early Morning House Fire

January 15, 2009 (ROANOKE COUNTY) – The Roanoke County Fire Marshal’s office has determined that vagrants using a warming fire caused a house fire in the 800 block of Chestnut Street early this morning. Investigators say the old, abandoned house, with no working electricity or gas, was being used by vagrants.

The house is a total loss estimated at about $10,000.

Roanoke County Fire and Rescue Department is committed to providing quality fire and emergency medical services to the citizens and visitors of Roanoke County, Virginia.
