New Wave Of Jury Duty Scam Calls

(Roanoke County, VA) – Today the Roanoke County Police took complaints regarding a phone scam. The victims were advised that they did not report for jury duty and owed a fine. The caller required the victims to remain on the line and required them to go get a "Green Dot - MoneyPak" type card. They then required the victim to give the card information to them. The Roanoke County Police wants to remind citizens that this is a scam and that no law enforcement agency will call citizens to require money to be paid for outstanding warrants or failure to show for jury duty.

If you have any information about these incidents call the Roanoke County Police Department at (540) 562-3265.
