

School Resource Officer Jason Taylor
Roanoke Regional Chamber of Commerce
Officer of the Month February 2011

The Roanoke Regional Chamber of Commerce has selected School Resource Officer Jason Taylor of the Roanoke County Police Department for the Officer of the Month award for February 2011.

Acting on information, Officer Taylor was able to retrieve items linked to a Roanoke County burglary. Officer Taylor spoke with a suspect and was able to obtain information on that burglary and several other burglaries in the area, as well as information on an additional suspect.

As a result of Officer Taylor's investigation, 16 burglaries in the Roanoke County, Roanoke City, Bedford and Floyd County were cleared and burglaries charges were made against both suspects.

Congratulations Officer Taylor on a job well done.
