Roanoke County Board of Supervisors Seeking Applicants to Fill Vinton District Vacancy

(November 16, 2023) – The Board of Supervisors of Roanoke County is searching for candidates to fill the Board’s vacancy in the Vinton Magisterial District, which has resulted from P. Jason Peters’ election to serve as the Roanoke County Commissioner of the Revenue.

Candidates for the position must be residents and qualified voters of the Vinton Magisterial District. The candidate selected and appointed by the Board will hold office until a special election is held in November of 2024. Subsequently, the person elected at the special election will serve the remainder of Mr. Peters’ term, which expires December 31, 2025.

Interested applicants must mail or email a written statement, not exceeding 300 words, setting forth their qualifications, and why they want to be the supervisor for the Vinton Magisterial District, to the Chief Deputy Clerk at the following address or email by November 30, 2023:

Deborah C. Jacks
Chief Deputy Clerk to the Roanoke County Board of Supervisors
