

2017 NACo Brilliant Idea Award

JUNE 9, 2017 - The National Association of Counties (NACo) is pleased to announce the 100 Brilliant Ideas at Work, as part of NACo President Bryan Desloge's presidential initiative. The 100 Brilliant Ideas illustrate the best innovations in county government.

“These brilliant ideas can serve as examples for counties across the country. Though no two of America’s 3,069 counties are exactly alike, many face similar challenges and can learn from one another’s ideas and experiences,” said NACo President Bryan Desloge.

Roanoke County’s Communications and Information Technology Department received the 2017 Bright Idea Award for its Neighborhood Concerns Zoning Code Enforcement Application. For more information visit <https://www.naco.org/blog/100-brilliant-ideas-work-winners-announced>.
