Want to Cut Miles and Save Gas? Look to Non-Commute Trips, Too!

Drivers who are looking to save money on their transportation expenses generally look to trim their commute trips. This can be the easiest trip to cut, since it's the most regular and predictable trip, but unless you have access to good transportation options you must be stuck making that daily drive no matter your intentions. Particularly for commuters who drive in from rural or suburban neighborhoods into jobs in more dense areas, getting on a bike, riding a bus, or even finding a carpool partner just isn't an option.

However, that daily commute trips isn't a way you can cut miles. RIDE Solutions recently hosted its annual Clean Commute Challenge, and for the first time the contest allowed participants to log trips that were not commute related. Clean commuters logged bike trips to the store, carpooling to dinner, teleworking to business meeting via phone conference, and taking the bus to the movies. In fact, 39% of all trips logged during the Clean Commute Challenge were non-work related trips!

Indeed, while our work commutes are sometimes our longest trips, most of the trips a household takes are actually not work related. So, if you feel like getting to work has you stuck in the driver's seat, think about the other trips you and your family make. Maybe instead of driving to the grocery store for one big trip, you can bike to a closer, corner store or neighborhood store a few times a week for basics. Or, use a park and ride to plan a weekend outing with the family by taking the Smart Way bus for lunch in Blacksburg, or Valley Metro to one of the Roanoke Valley's many trails and greenways.

Looking for creative ways to cut your transportation costs?

Visit RIDE Solutions for information on local transit, safe bike routes, carpool matching and more. And if you want to see how people got around during the Clean Commute Challenge, visit the Leaderboard webpage for all the info.

Welcome to our new Building Commissioner and

Assistant Building Commissioner!

Roanoke County's new Building Commissioner, Morgan Yates, is a familiar face as he has been working for Roanoke County since 2002. Morgan was hired as an Engineering Inspector and became a Combination Code Compliance Inspector in 2003. Since then he has assisted with plan reviews and was certified as a Combination Residential Inspector by the State of Virginia Department of Housing and Community Development. Morgan was promoted to Building Commissioner in April of 2015 and he is looking forward to assisting the citizens and building community for many years to come.

Tammi Wood and Morgan Yates

Our new Assistant Building Commissioner is also a long-time Roanoke County employee. Tammi Wood moved to the Roanoke Valley permanently in 1998 from Pensacola Florida, after she served two years and her husband served twenty years in the Army and retired. She worked several years in the private sector in various aspects of building positions including HVAC and plumbing/construction calculations and plan review, then began her career in the Community Development Department in 2000 holding various positions. In May 2013, she accepted the Zoning Administrator position for the City of Roanoke (at which time she was able to meet many new colleagues and obtain a vast amount of knowledge) and then after eight months, returned to Roanoke County Community Development. During the years in the Planning and Zoning divisions, Tammi continued to pursue many aspects of building safety training and certification and in June 2015 accepted the position of Assistant Building Commissioner/ Senior Plans Examiner, a job which includes assisting citizens, plan review and learning new aspects of building plan review and building innovations, which she thoroughly enjoys.

Tammi grew her building knowledge from a young age, assisting her father and grandfather in many renovations and home improvement projects for family and friends alike. Over the years she has worked on designing and renovating kitchens and bathrooms, installing cabinets, installing tile and linoleum, plastering dry wall and various other renovations. Now her projects include smaller scale remodeling and lots of yardwork.

Farmington Drive Drainage Improvement Project Completed

Virginia Department of Transportation \(VDOT\) contractors have completed drainage improvements to Route 1652, Farmington Drive. Crews replaced two corrugated metal pipes with a dual concrete box culverts. Construction required the roadway to be closed for about 30 days. The pictures below show the installation of the box culverts, and the completed work.

Funds for the project were allocated through the VDOT Revenue Sharing Program, whereby construction costs are shared by VDOT and Roanoke County.

Cotton Hill Road Reconstruction Begins

Virginia Department of Transportation \(VDOT\) contractors have begun reconstructing a section of Route 688, Cotton Hill Road. The project extends from the intersection of Route 221, Bent Mountain Road, under the Blue Ridge Parkway, to Shingle Ridge Road. The section from Bent Mountain Road to Monet Drive will include 14-foot wide travel lanes to accommodate bicycle traffic, and a sidewalk on the left / eastern side of the roadway. From Monet Drive through the Blue Ridge Parkway, the project narrows as it enters the National Park Service property. Lowering a "hump" or vertical curve in the roadway, to the south of Monet Drive, will require closure of that section of road during the summer of 2016. Crews are currently building a stormwater detention pond, and installing drainage structures on the northern sections of the project. Funds for the project were allocated through the VDOT Secondary System Six Year Improvement Program. Construction is estimated to be completed in the fall of 2016.

Reading and Riding

Each year, the average American spends over two weeks a year stuck in traffic. That's more time fuming behind the wheel than most folks get in vacation! In Roanoke, the average commute is 10 minutes one-way, meaning that the average Roanoke driver spends over 86 hours a year just commuting. While you may not be able to skip the commute, you may be able to get some of that time back each year by choosing to carpool or using public transit. And what better way to enjoy those extra hours than with a good book?

This summer, RIDE Solutions is encouraging folks throughout the region to get out from behind the wheel and get into a good book with our Reading and Riding program. Whether it's your carpool partner's week to drive and you've got some free time in the passenger seat, or you're riding the Smart Way bus and letting someone else take responsibility for navigating traffic on I-81, we want to encourage you to use that extra time by visiting your local library and checking out a book.

Then, let us know what you're reading! Visit ridesolutions.org/readandride, let us know what's on your summer reading list, and you'll get a chance to win a brand new Kindle Voyage e-reader! You'll also get a collection of Reading and Riding bookmarks with suggested reading lists in a range of categories. You can also enter by using the hashtag #readandride to post a photo of your current reading material on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram.

Take back the time you spend behind the wheel with RIDE Solutions and your local library.
